The Firm is proud to share that its Fintech practice was included in Band 1 in the recently released Chambers Guide. The emerging Fintech landscape in Mexico has been a focal point for the Firm for some time, and we are thrilled to see our efforts and work recognized.

Chambers describes our practice as follows: “For many years, Nader, Hayaux y Goebel has operated at the highest level in handling banking and finance and capital markets matters in Mexico via its team’s strong regulatory expertise. In FinTech matters, the firm reinforces its regulatory prowess with an impressive TMT offering. The result is a first-rate FinTech practice with a diverse client base, encompassing international heavyweights and pioneering startups such as neo-banks, payment platforms and crypto-trading solutions.”

“They’ve been been really helpful in assisting us to strategically navigate the market and they’ve clarified tons of questions – even those we didn’t ask.”

Client feedback includes: “They are very strong in their expertise. An experienced team and the right connections in the industry. They’ve been been really helpful in assisting us to strategically navigate the market and they’ve clarified tons of questions – even those we didn’t ask.”

We are particularly proud with Adrián López’ inclusion as Notable Practitioner, individually ranked in Band 2.

He receives effusive praise:

“Adrián López has considerable experience advising leading foreign and domestic financial institutions in connection with M&A transactions, regulatory compliance and business structuring in relation to digital services and products. Clients appreciate his diligent and pragmatic approach in regulatory analysis and his solid advice in groundbreaking new areas of the financial sector such as cryptocurrencies, where the legal framework can be hazardous to navigate”.
