NHG contributed to the GTDT Fintech Q&A for Mexico, an overview to understand the legal regulatory landscape in which fintech entities operate, the financial technology regulations and the implications related to offering regulated financial services in Mexico.

“Fintechs in Mexico are mainly focused on payments and remittances services, followed by consumer lending, technologies for financial institutions and enterprise financial management.”

“The Mexican fintech environment has continued to develop at a fast pace, and has been labelled as ‘unstoppable’ by experts in the fintech industry.”

Nader, Hayaux & Goebel has a strong reputation as one of the leading firms in Mexico that attracts a consistent stream of major, complex, multi-jurisdictional and sophisticated Fintech mandates.

The firm stands out in the market for the diversity of its client roster and for the pioneering and innovative quality of its Fintech matters, which represent the evolution of banking and finance.

This is due to its market-leading ability to advise upon regulatory implications, cross-border transactions, payments systems and cryptocurrency issues, all of which require a high level of lawyering and a pioneering attitude in often uncertain and developing regulatory terrain.

“[...]a first-rate Fintech practice with a diverse client base, encompassing international heavyweights and pioneering startups such as neo-banks, payment platforms and crypto-trading solutions”.
