

NHG welcomes two new Partners

Category: Firm news

written by Adrián Trejo Santiago | December 4, 2023

P R E S S R E L E A S E

Nader, Hayaux & Goebel (NHG) is delighted to announce the addition of two new partners, José A. Noguera and Marcela Ánimas, effective January 1, 2024.

José A. Noguera, a senior associate at NHG, has been promoted to partner. He brings expertise in corporate M&A, corporate governance, joint ventures, investment funds, cross-border transactions, international commercial transactions, restructuring and workouts, and finance. José's industry experience spans to automotive, mining, sports, industrial, banking, financial services and logistics.

During his tenure at NHG, José has led multiple M&A and workout transactions, and provided counsel to major international financing and industrial institutions on their equity and debt investments in Mexican companies. He has a strong track record in mergers and acquisitions in Mexico and Latin America.

Before NHG, José was a visiting attorney at a global law firm in Washington, DC, focusing on real estate investment trusts, fund formation, and mergers and acquisitions. He holds an LLM degree from the University of Chicago Law School and a law degree from Universidad Iberoamericana.

José comments "I am proud to be invited as a partner of NHG, a Firm strongly recognized for having the highest standards of professionalism and excellence, and also, human warmth. My promotion evidences the Firm's continued evolution to maintain its position as a market leader, particularly in the areas of mergers and acquisitions; restructuring, reorganization and bankruptcy, and banking and finance, always with a focus on providing exceptional services to our clients. I am very excited to be part of the future of NHG".

Marcela Ánimas, a highly esteemed environmental and natural resources lawyer with over 20 years of experience in Mexico, joins as a partner. With ample market recognition, Marcela has extensive experience advising various sectors and projects. Her expertise encompasses sustainability, ecological ordinance, environmental impact, efficient use of natural resources, corporate governance, environmental liability, divestitures, site abandonments, public policy, M&As, real estate transactions, and financial dealings for both public and private sectors.

The addition of Marcela to the partnership will enhance NHG's ESG practice area, while strengthening the Firm's capabilities in natural resources and environmental law.

Marcela comments "I am grateful and excited to join such a prestigious law firm. On this new venture I hope to foster synergies between legal teams, strengthen the ESG practice group and positively impact outcomes for clients and the Firm alike."

Marcela holds a bachelor's degree in law from Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM); a master's degree in environmental policy and management from Universidad Carlos III de Madrid in Spain and numerous post graduate diplomas on compliance, real estate, energy and environmental law from some of Mexico's most prestigious Universities. Before joining NHG, Marcela was part of an elite Mexican firm and thereafter held her own legal practice.

Hans Goebel, Chairman of NHG, commented: "NHG remains dedicated to sustaining its position as a market leader through ongoing evolution and adaptation. The addition of José and Marcela to the partnership underscores and reinforces this dedication, ensuring we continue to provide our clients with exceptional legal services. Their expertise, along with their anticipated contributions in numerous other areas, is expected to enrich the quality and scope of our service offerings, adding significant value for the benefit of our clients."